ebi Earth portfolios win at Investment Week Sustainable Investment Awards 2025

ebi Portfolios, the £4.7bn discretionary fund manager has won Best Sustainable / ESG Investment Portfolio Range at the Investment Week Sustainable Investment Awards 2025.

ebi achieved the award for its Earth suite of funds, a globally diversified, ESG-screened and factor-tilted range of model portfolios. The Earth Portfolios are designed for investors seeking a balance between sustainability and long-term financial growth.

The awards were judged by a panel of sustainable investment experts from across the industry who decided on shortlists and final winners. The judges looked for a strong performance record, a strong management team, funds which met their sustainable objectives, effective client communication, and wider fund impact. They also considered key developments on sustainable investment strategies over the past year.

The Investment Week Sustainable Investment Awards were held at London's Grosvenor Square on 17 September.

Ashley Owen, Head of Business Development at ebi, said: "What a privilege it is to have won this coveted award, which was judged by a highly respected panel of sustainable investing experts. We're incredibly proud of our Earth portfolio suite, which combines ESG screening with a focus on delivering long-term consistent performance, so it's fantastic to see our approach recognised in this way by our industry colleagues. Congratulations also to all who were shortlisted and all the winners on the night."

This win is the latest in a string of awards for ebi, which also scooped Best Outsourced Investment Manager at the Money Marketing Awards 2025 the previous week. This is the second consecutive year ebi has won this coveted award, which recognises an outstanding outsourced investment management partner to UK financial advice firms over the last 12 months.

Earlier in the year, ebi claimed three awards at the Citywire Adviser Choice Awards 2025: Most Useful Interface, Best Value for Money, and Most Satisfactory Investment Outcome.
